Fees and Expenses

Generally, we won't charge you any fees for the advice that we provide to you. This is possible because, if you act on the advice given, we usually receive commission from the applicable product provider on settlement of a mortgage. There are some exceptions to this general position which are explained below.

We may charge you a one-off fee in the following situations:

- a. No commission: If you request that we provide services in relation to a product or service and we do not receive a commission. Any such fee would be agreed and authorized by you in writing before we complete the services and would be based on an estimate of the time spent providing the advice. This may arise in the rare event that you request that we provide Services in relation to either a product that is offered by a provider that we do not hold an accreditation with, or a product that is outside our usual arrangements with our product providers.
- b. Repayment of commission: If a product or service provider requires that we pay commission within 28 months of settlement of your mortgage. Any such fee would be no more than $3,000 (plus GST, if any) and would be calculated based on a rate of $250 (plus GST, if any) per hour of the financial adviser's time spent providing services to you in connection with the applicable mortgage or insurance. The fee charged will not exceed the amount of commission clawed back from the lender.
- c. We may charge a fixed fee of $1,000 for our services if you do not proceed with loan approval. This fee will be waived if:
 - The loan approval does not meet the needs you identified and confirmed at the time of submission, and we cannot obtain better approval to meet those needs; or
 - Your situation has changed, and you no longer need a loan.
 - We do not charge fee for renewing an existing loan approval.

Should we need to charge you a fee, you will be invoiced and will be given 30 days to make payment.

Commissions and other incentives

If you proceed with a product on the basis of financial advice given by your adviser, the adviser, adviser business, and/or the licensee usually receives commission on settlement of a loan. We may also receive a commission payment or referral fee for business referred to other businesses.

The types of payments that maybe received include:

- Up front commission (calculated as a percentage of the loan at drawdown).
- Renewal or trail commission calculated as a percentage of the loan outstanding at the relevant time).
- Fixed rate rollover fee (from some product providers if we assist in refixing your loan).
- Referral fees.
- Other incentives or rewards, for example gifts or tickets to events.

Further information about the commissions and incentives that are relevant to the advice you may receive, including the maximum percentages used to calculate commissions, will be given to you by your Financial Adviser.

This commission is used to remunerate the financial adviser that provides the advice, and to pay the expenses associated with running our business including any rent, staff costs and IT resources. From this commission we also pay Kiwi Adviser Network (KAN) for services they provide to us in connection with our lender accreditations.

Conflicts of Interest

We may attend events hosted by industry associations, product providers, and KAN, at which product providers discuss and provide information about their products. We manage this potential conflict of interest by ensuring we follow an advice process that ensures we prioritize your interests and recommend products that are suitable for you regardless of the information received at such events.

We take steps to ensure that the conflicts of interest, including receipt of commissions or other incentives, do not influence the advice we give to you and that our advisers prioritize your interests by recommending the best product for your purpose regardless of the type and amount of commission we or they may receive.

We do this by:

- Ensuring our advisers follow an advice process that ensures they understand your needs and goals and that their recommendations meet those needs and goals.
- Ensuring our advisers receive regular training on how to manage conflicts of interest.
- Providing you with a schedule showing commission amounts and types by product provider. This schedule is contained within each Financial Adviser's personalized Disclosure Guide. A Financial Adviser will provide you with more information about commissions during the advice process.

If there are any conflicts of interest apart from commission that could potentially influence the advice that we give, these will be shown in your Financial Adviser's Disclosure Guide.
